Jo Ann Berry

The 2012 Irish Setter Club of Colorado Specialties are dedicated to Jo Ann Berry, one of the founding members of the ISCC. Born in Bethel, Maine in 1930, Jo Ann spent much of her early life in a hunting and fishing camp that was run by her father's family, and these years helped to shape her lifelong loves for the outdoors, for wildlife and dogs, for flowers, photography, and for doing everything wholeheartedly. She and her father ran the guide boat on the river, and in the process, she became an incredible swimmer, winning many medals and competitions during her high school and college years.

In 1951, she married Wilbur Berry, a mechanic for United Airlines, and in 1957, the family was transferred to Hawaii, where Irish Setters entered her life. She saw some young boys with an Irish Setter puppy, followed them home, then brought home an Irish pup for herself. In 1962, they moved to Colorado, where Jo joined the early ISCC, and studied and read everything she could find on the breed. Jo had a great eye, and taught most of the members to groom – she could outgroom all of us. For much of the next 35 years, Jo trained, groomed, showed, bred, and judged Irish Setters, using the kennel name Bangor, a tip of the hat to her Maine roots.

That first Irish Setter puppy was of Red Barn lines, and became her foundation bitch, Ch. SeeKay's Berry Gay Rhu CD ROM. When bred to Knockcross' O'Boy, (the sire of CH Knockcross' Ruby), Berry produced a lovely litter, and many of Jo's dogs descended from this breeding. According to the 1991 ISCA Pictorial, Berry was behind some of the top producers of the '70s and '80s, and so is also behind many of today's Irish. Bangor breeding was part of early pedigrees for Courtwood, Knockcross, and Tramore, and Jo's breedings with Thenderin also produced some lovely dogs.

Wildlife photography was a passion, and Jo travelled to Africa and Ecuador to photograph wildlife. She owned and bred some top winning Australian Terriers, and raised and showed orchids, as well as dogs. She painted, and also created some beautiful stained glass and ceramic pieces.

Her best friends were those she had met through her dogs, and she would be honored to know that she is still remembered by them.
